

---

Officers pitched in to help Middletown

After Middletown police Officer Christopher Jones was killed Thursday cops from several Bucks departments took over the overnight shift patrolling the township for free.

Authorities said officers who weren't working in their own towns answered emergency calls in the township without pay so Middletown officers could take time to grieve after Jones' death. Middletown officers were back on duty Friday as they planned for Jones' funeral later this week.

A public viewing will be held Wednesday from 4 to 10 p.m. at Our Lady of Grace Church, 225 Bellevue Ave. in Penndel.

A Mass is scheduled for noon Thursday at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia, followed by a procession to Resurrection Cemetery in Bensalem where Jones will be interred.

Contributions to the Jones family can be made to Christopher Jones Trust Fund, Police and Fire Credit Union, 852 E. Street Road in Warminster, PA 18974 or to the Hero Scholarship Fund, 1760 S. Easton Road, Doylestown, PA 18901.