

---

Benefits and how you can donate

Anyone interested in donating money to Middletown Police Officer Chris Jones' family can do so by making checks payable to the Philadelphia Police and Fire Credit Union, with Jones' name on the memo line, and mailing to the credit union at 901 Arch St., Philadelphia, PA 19107.

A benefit is being organized for Feb. 20 at King's Caterers on New Falls Road in Middletown.

Police are trying to gather door prizes and asking anyone interested in participating or donating to call 215-750-3866. The event will be held from 7 p.m. to midnight and will cost $25.

Acme Markets will have a canister at each cash register in its Bucks County stores through Feb. 19 to raise fund for the Jones family.

"With nine stores in Bucks County, we had to answer the call," said Acme President Judy Spires.

"We know that our customers and associates will willingly and generously support this fundraising effort."

Also, seven area auto dealerships are donating $25 for every new car sold this month and $1 for every oil change done this month to the Jones family.

The dealerships are Reedman/Toll Auto World, Davis Acura, McCafferty Auto Group, Peruzzi Auto Group, Piazza Honda, Team Toyota and VW-Volvo of Langhorne.